

The diagram illustrates a semi-circular lecture hall layout. The front wall is a thick black line with a central door and two side doors. The side walls are curved and feature several windows. The back wall is a thick black line. The floor is filled with rows of seats, and a podium is located at the front center.